iBook Published

For those with iPads I'm pleased to announce the publication, by Apple, of my iBook Author title, "Labyrinths." The title is in the, "Geometry Through Time," series that covers the cultural applications of geometry through time and includes the titles: The Pythagoreans, Art of the Arabs, The Celts, Nomads, Ancient China, and The Americas. The applications of geometry considered are in architecture, art, sensory perception, and communication.

To buy the title please go to the iTunes store. The title is published in the USA, UK, Australia, Canada, and South Africa – in English. If you are not in any of these countries then open iTunes and scroll down to the bottom of the screen. You will find an icon of the map of your country. If you click the map icon you will see that you can access iTunes stores in any of the published countries.